An Eastertide Prayer Retreat | Saturday, April 28, 2012
St. Mary-on-the-Lake — 1655-1663 Killarney Way, Bellevue

But for the person who knows why he calls himself a Christian, none of the events in the life of Jesus Christ can be of no consequence. All of them concern us and have a mysterious and profound significance and relevance today.

Hans Urs von Balthasar

Easter Sunday marks the beginning of Eastertide — the period from Easter to Pentecost — the momentous transition from Christ's Resurrection and Ascension to Pentecost.

This prayer retreat will provide an opportunity to prayerfully ponder these key events in salvation history and their relevance for us today.

Three masterpieces of devotional art: Caravaggio's "Supper at Emmaus," Giotto's "Ascension," and el Greco's "Pentecost" will inspire our prayer, along with relevant Scripture texts, sacred music, and poetry.

The goal is to deepen our relationship with our Triune God as we contemplate the spiritual dimensions of Eastertide.

*We must be still and still moving
Into another intensity
For a further union,
a deeper communion.*

T. S. Eliot, Four Quartets
